Description

The starting point for this Bichlach tour is Oberndorf in Tirol. Here we follow the main road out of town towards Kitzbühel. We join the main road at the end for short distance before turning right towards Schriedboden, just after the quarry. At the next fork we keep to the right, and follow the asphalt road steeply up towards Reith, Grutten. At the end of the ascent, after a short flat section, there is a fork in the road where we turn left, followed shortly by a right turn towards Brantl. At the Brantlhof we cycle over the field path into the forest towards Grutten and follow the gravel path uphill to the Gruttenhof. Here we join the asphalt road downhill towards Oberndorf which takes us back to the starting point.
